

Spence Family Tree
compiled November 2009

Joseph & Rebecca residence:
1881: 2 & 3, Middlesex Pass, St Bartholomew The Great 1891: 5, Block P, Roscoe Street, St Luke, London
1901: 2, Hermes Hill, Clerkenwell
1911: 11 Collier Street, Pentonville Road, Clerkenwell

Joseph's occupation
1881: Waiter
1891: Restaurant porter
1901: Carver
1911: Restaurant Carver
1913: (Ellen's wedding) Carman
1914: (Bertie's wedding) Restaurant Chef's assistant

1911 Census records that Joseph & Rebecca had 12 children of whom 4 had died.

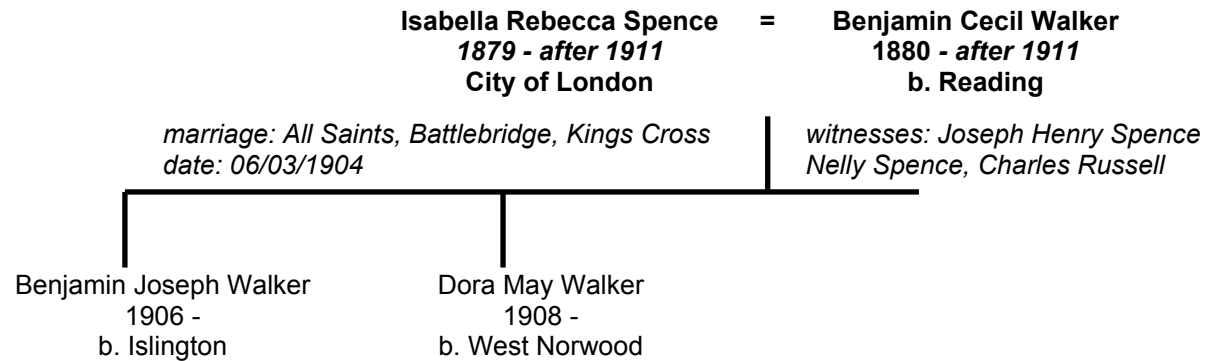

Spence Family Tree
compiled November 2009

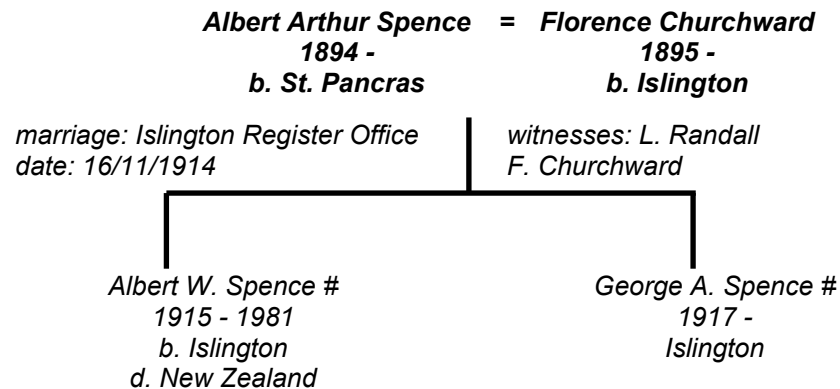

Isabella is the "Aunt Belle" that Mum remembers as living near to Waterloo Bridge Station. She married Ben, a librarian.

In 1911 Benjamin & Isabella are living at 32 Goldsboro Road, South Lambeth. Benjamin is a Library Porter

At the time of his marriage Benjamin was a Private in the Coldstream Guards. His father was William Walker, wheelwright

Albert Arthur is one and the same as Bertie Spence. Albert and Florence are the parents of the Albert William who died in New Zealand and left an inheritance for the surviving children of Ellen Rowe née Spence.

†Family Search
Free BMD