

Nancy Hoggarth born 1811
compiled by Ron Hoggarth January 2008
cousin of Henry born 1806

James & Nancy moved to Overthwaite in 1855 when their eldest daughter died. [The previous farmer at Overthwaite, Edward Askew, died on 10th February 1854 Ω.]
 According to Soulby's Ulverston Advertiser, Barrow Bell was a maltster at Overthwaite, advanced in years, and found drowned on 22nd March 1859. Nancy's brother, Henry, visited Overthwaite shortly before he committed suicide in March 1877.

§ James married an innkeeper's daughter, Mary Dawson; the couple were the Hotel keepers at the Kings Arms in Stricklandgate in 1891. The couple subsequently moved to Danes Road, Staveley.
