Ø This was Jane's second marriage, maiden name Turner, and born in Aldingham. She married William Kendall, widower, 23rd May 1829, at Pennington. He could possibly be brother of the Jane who married William Sandham in 1823.

¶ Pennington baptism of 12th August 1821 lists parents as John and Mary Sandham of Rosshead. An earlier Ulverston St. Mary baptism of an Elizabeth Sandham on 21st May 1820 lists parents as William and Dorothy, place of abode as Swarthmoor Hall. A Bernard and Betty Harrison (witness to the marriage of John & Mary?) had a child baptised on the same day.

Bigger would have been a hamlet towards the south end of Walney

Ormsgill would have been a hamlet near to the coast opposite the north end of Walney

Northscale was a hamlet towards the north end of Walney

Loppergarth (Pennington) is midway between Lindal and Ulverston

Hastygill is west of Ulverston possibly close to Rosshhead. Levy Beck flowed through it (which lower down becomes Dragley Beck)

Rosshhead Nook is about a mile west of Ulverston in the same vicinity, if not the same as, Hastygill

Tyteup Farmhouse is about a mile to the west of Lindal

Highgreaves lies between Rosshhead and Pennington (Loppergarth)

Whinfield is a short distance from Lindal towards Pennington

Lowfield House lay in Green Lane between Swarthmoor and Lindal

Tarnflatt is at Marton between Lindal and Ireleth. It is interesting to note that Robert Graves (son of Robert Graves & Marion Hoggarth) and his wife Catherine were living here in 1829.
