

Taylor of Thorphinsty
compiled by Ron Hoggarth February 2011

In 1841 William and Jane are farming at Old Field End, Patton. William and Jane are at the Punch Bowl Inn when son Isaac died.
 In 1851 William and Jane are farming at Watts Field, Nether Graveship.

◇ Living with William and Jane at Field End in 1841. Maybe father and brother

Richard Thexton ◇
 1764 - after 1841
 b. Hutton

John Taylor ◇
 1782 - after 1841
 b.

William Taylor § = Jane Thexton
 1794 - after 1871 1793 - after 1851
 b. Whinfell b. Hutton

marriage: Kendal † date: 16/08/1815

Thomas
 1816 - after 1861
 b. Whinfell

Betty 1818 - b.

Richard
 1819 - after 1851
 b. Whinfell

Jane 1821 - 1903 #
 b. Whinfell

Margaret 1823 - 1875*
 b. Whinfell

William 1825 - 1906
 b. Whinfell

Nancy 1828 - after 1841
 b.

John 1831 - 1897* ♂
 b. Whinfell

Isaac 1833 - 1845*
 d. Punch Bowl, Grayrigg

Joseph † 1835 - b. Grayrigg

=
 Hannah Gawthrop
 Whinerey
 1820 - after 1861
 b. Kendal

=
 John Kitching
 1816 - after 1851

=
 Jane Barnes
 1824 - after 1851
 b. Selside

=
 John Lancaster
 1815 - 1886 #

=
 Lancelot Hoggarth 1828 - 1903 #
 b. Burneside

=
 Mary Isabella Hoggarth 1828 - 1911
 b. Burneside

=
 Margaret Barnes Δ 1834 - 1914* ♂
 b. Selside

marriage: Kendal † date: 1846

marriage: Kendal date: May 1846*

marriage: Kendal †
 date: 1843

marriage: Kendal
 date: 1848 #

marriage: Kendal * Ω
 date: 17/08/1852

marriage: Kendal
 date: 15/05/1849

marriage: Burneside
 date: 04/11/1856

(see Barnes family tree)

(see Holme Lion Hoggarths)

(see Barnes family tree)

Jane Kitching
 1849 - after 1911
 b. Grayrigg
 (daughter living with the widowed Jane Lancaster in 1891 & 1901 and the family of Thomas Taylor, b. 1862, in 1911)

Δ Younger sister of Anthony and Thomas Barnes who married
 Margaret and Agnes Ellwood, nieces of Henry Hoggarth (b.1806)

§ Father was Jack Taylor,, "great mower", according to family descendant David Smail.
 He had a brother, Tom, "big mower", who moved to the Lyth Valley in 1805.

♂ Gravestone in Cartmel Fell Churchyard
 ‡ Patchwork History
 ♀ Gravestone in Witherslack Churchyard

* Westmorland Gazette † Family Search
 # Free BMD
 Ω Ulverston Advertiser
 ‡ Lancaster Gazette
 ℓ Lancaster Parish Clerk
 ⋆ Kendal Mercury

Taylor of Thorphinsty
compiled by Ron Hoggarth February 2011

◇ Living with William and Jane at Field End in 1841. Maybe father and brother

Richard Thexton ◇
 1764 - after 1841
 b. Hutton

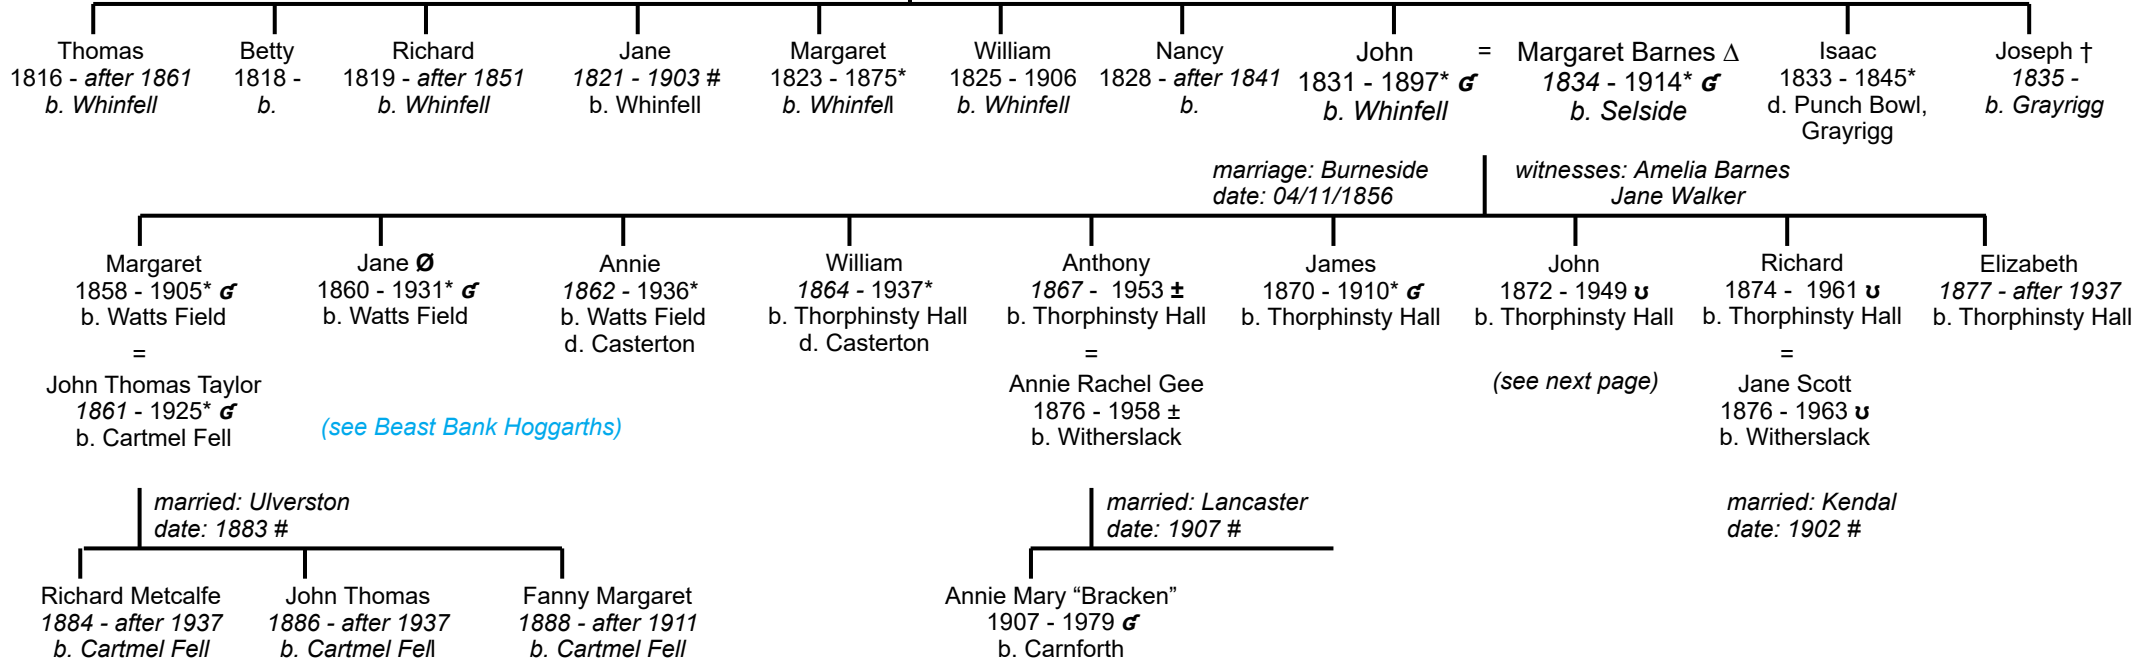

In 1841 William and Jane are farming at Old Field End, Patton. William and Jane are at the Punch Bowl Inn when son Isaac died.
 In 1851 William and Jane are farming at Watts Field, Nether Graveship.
 In 1861 John and Margaret are farming at Watts Field, Nether Graveship, widowed William is with son William and his young family at Holm Lion.
 In 1871 John and Margaret are farming at Thorphinsty
 In 1901 John Thomas is farming at Cantsfield in Lunesdale 1914 Margaret died on 3rd August, the day of the outbreak of World War I Thorphinsty is sold by M.B. Hodgson upon instructions from a John Taylor

John Taylor ◇
 1782 - after 1841
 b.

William Taylor § = Jane Thexton
 1794 - after 1871 1793 - after 1851
 b. Whinfell b. Hutton

△ Younger sister of Anthony and Thomas Barnes who married Margaret and Agnes Ellwood, nieces of Henry Hoggarth (b.1806)

marriage: Kendal †
 date: 16/08/1815

§ Father was Jack Taylor,, "great mower", according to family descendant David Smail. He had a brother, Tom, "big mower", who moved to the Lyth Valley in 1805.

Ø Dairy Maid to cousin William Atkinson at Overthwaite in 1911. Jane died at Melling Nursing Home and had been living at Bee Nest, Casterton.

♂ Gravestone in Cartmel Fell Churchyard
 ± Patchwork History
 ♀ Gravestone in Witherslack Churchyard

* Westmorland Gazette
 † Family Search
 # Free BMD
 Ω Ulverston Advertiser
 ‡ Lancaster Gazette
 ℓ Lancaster Parish Clerk
 ⋆ Kendal Mercury

Taylor of Thorphinsty

compiled by Ron Hoggarth February 2011

In 1911 John is a farmer at High Tarn Green, Newton in Cartmel
 In 1939 John Barnes and Edith Taylor are living at Farmside (possibly Crosthwaite).
 John Barnes Taylor is a County Council roadman.

◇ Living with William and Jane at Field End in 1841. Maybe father and brother

Richard Thexton ◇
 1764 - after 1841
 b. Hutton

John Taylor ◇
 1782 - after 1841
 b.

William Taylor § = Jane Thexton
 1794 - after 1871 1793 - after 1851
 b. Whinfell b. Hutton

△ Younger sister of Anthony and Thomas Barnes who married Margaret and Agnes Ellwood, nieces of Henry Hoggarth (b.1806)

marriage: Kendal †
 date: 16/08/1815

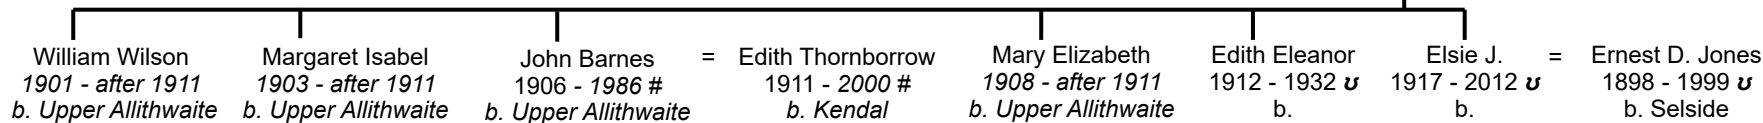

marriage: Burnside
 date: 04/11/1856

witnesses: Amelia Barnes Jane Walker

married: Kendal
 date: 1900 #

△ Daughter of William Wilson of Burgh by sands, Cumberland married: Ulverston

 date: 1932 #

(see Parks of Lyth)

§ Father was Jack Taylor,, "great mower", according to family descendant David Smail.
 He had a brother, Tom, "big mower", who moved to the Lyth Valley in 1805.

♂ Gravestone in Cartmel Fell Churchyard
 ± Patchwork History
 ♀ Gravestone in Witherslack Churchyard

Ø Dairy Maid to cousin William Atkinson at Overthwaite in 1911.
 Jane died at Melling Nursing Home and had been living at Bee Nest, Casterton.

* Westmorland Gazette
 † Family Search
 # Free BMD
 Ω Ulverston Advertiser
 ‡ Lancaster Gazette
 ℓ Lancaster Parish Clerk
 ⋆ Kendal Mercury