

William Hoggarth born 1881

compiled August 2018

first cousin of

William Henry Hoggarth born 1866

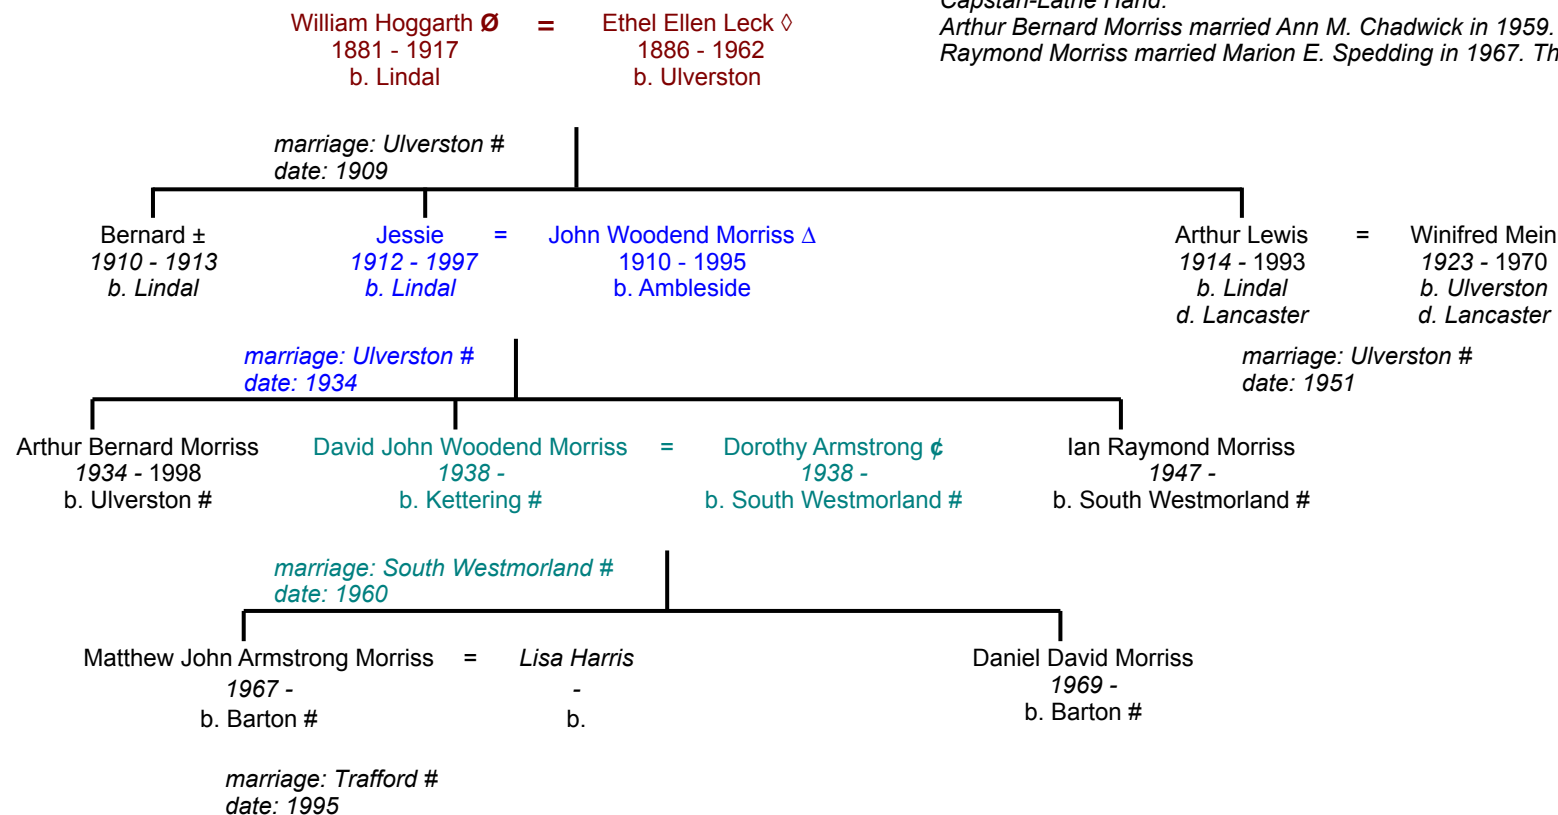

Before the Great War William was a miner in the Lindal mines. He was well-known and popular sportsman. As a miner he was exempt from conscription and despite being a young family man, he felt it his duty to volunteer and fight for his country. Sadly he was killed on the Western front in 1919.

In 1939 Jessie is living at Waberley Flat, St. Mary's Lane, Lakes Urban District, with her two young children.

In 1939 Arthur is living with his mother at 15 Mount Pleasant, Lindal. Arthur is a Capstan-Lathe Hand.

Arthur Bernard Morriss married Ann M. Chadwick in 1959. They have four children. Ian Raymond Morriss married Marion E. Spedding in 1967. They have two children.

♂ named on the Lindal War Memorial. Killed in action during the First World War.

War Grave Commission Information: Lance Corporal, King's Own (Royal Lancaster Regiment) 8th Bn. Age: 36
Death: 09/04/1917 Service No: 16660 son of Thomas Farrar Hoggarth and Sarah Hoggarth, of Lindal-in-Furness; husband of Ethel Hoggarth, of 5, Mount Pleasant, Lindal-in-Furness. Feuchy Chapel British Cemetery, Wancourt

♢ Granddaughter of Thomas and Sarah A. Boundy from Cornwall. Her father Thomas Leck (died 1920) was born in Cartmel and her mother was Emmeline Boundy.

± buried with his grandfather, plot D120, Dalton Cemetery

Δ son of Percy and Helena Morriss née Woodend

♄ daughter of Harold and Ivy E. Armstrong née Wilson

* Westmorland Gazette
† Family Search
Free BMD
Ω Ulverston Advertiser
‡ Lancaster Gazette
ℓ Lancaster Parish Clerk

revised April 2021